A Division of Save-On-Foods Limited Partnership, a Jim Pattison business

Darrell Jones appointed as Chair of BC Children's Hospital Foundation's Board of Directors

(October 1, 2021 – Langley, B.C.) The BC Children's Hospital Foundation has recently announced the appointment of Save-On-Foods president, Darrell Jones to the position of Chair of its board of directors.

For the past five years Darrell has been a board member and past vice-chair of the BC Children's Hospital Foundation and has shown his dedication and commitment to bettering the lives of B.C.'s children and families through these roles.

"Save-On-Foods has long supported the work of the BC Children's Hospital Foundation. Our stores fundraise proudly all year long with the goal of making a difference in the lives of children and their families across the province," said Darrell Jones, President of Save-On-Foods and board chair for BC Children's Hospital Foundation. "I am honoured to have been given this responsibility and am inspired by the work of the foundation, and the that of our team members to make a difference in children's healthcare through this new role."

Save-On-Foods has always felt it was important to be involved in the communities where they do business, and to give back in any way they can. With its supplier partners, team members and generous customers, Save-On-Foods has donated more than $40 million over the years to children's hospitals across western Canada.

About BC Children's Hospital Foundation

BC Children's Hospital is the only hospital in British Columbia devoted exclusively to the care of children, and is one of the few pediatric medical centres in North America with a world-class acute care centre, research institute, mental health facility and rehabilitation centre all on a single campus. Leading experts at BC Children's provide a specialized level of expertise, innovative therapies and kid-focused care that can't be found anywhere else in the province, including for the sickest and most seriously injured. At BC Children's Hospital Foundation, we have a vision that every child is healthy and able to fulfill their hopes and dreams. The generosity of donors fuels our ability to help conquer childhood illnesses and address the biggest health challenges that face kids today.
