Vaccine Type	Adult Vaccine Recommendation	Dose(s)
Diphtheria provided as Td or Tdap	• Everyone	Booster every 10 years
Dukoral®	• Travellers, depending on destination	Taken orally, 2 doses taken 1-6 wks apart; last dose taken at least 1 wk before travel Revaccination: If up to 5 years since last dose: 1 dose If more than 5 years since last dose: 2 doses
Hepatitis A Avaxim®, Havrix®	<ul><li>People with certain medical, occupational, or lifestyle risks</li><li>Travellers to high risk destinations</li></ul>	<ul> <li>Avaxim®: initial dose plus 1 follow-up dose 6-36 months later</li> <li>Havrix®: initial dose plus 1 follow-up dose 6-12 months later</li> </ul>
Hepatitis B: Engerix-B® Recombivax HB® Twinrix®	<ul> <li>People with certain medical, occupational, or lifestyle risks</li> <li>Adults living communities or traveling in destinations that are high risk</li> </ul>	<ul> <li>3 doses: initial dose plus 2 follow-up doses at 1 and 6 months later OR</li> <li>4 doses (rapid schedule): initial dose plus 3 follow-up doses at 7 days, 21 days &amp; 1 year later OR</li> <li>4 doses (accelerated schedule): initial dose plus 3 follow-up doses 1, 2 &amp; 12 months later</li> </ul>
Herpes zoster (shingles) non-live vaccine (Shingrix)	<ul> <li>Adults 50 years or over; may be given to those 18 years or older at increased risk of herpes zoster due to immunodeficiency or immunosuppression</li> </ul>	Shingrix: 2 doses (2-6 months apart)
Human papillomavirus (HPV) Gardasil®9	<ul> <li>Women 18 to 45 years of age</li> <li>Men 18 to 26 years of age with lifestyle or other risks</li> <li>Men 27 years of age and older at continued risk of exposure</li> </ul>	3 doses (initial dose plus 2 follow-up doses 2 months and 6 months later)
Influenza (flu)	Adults and children 6 months of age and over	Annually
Measles/mumps/rubella (German measles) - MMR MMR®II, Priorix®	<ul> <li>Adults born before 1970: 1 dose if travelling, have certain medical conditions, or have occupational risk</li> <li>Adults born in or after 1970 who have not had the disease: 2 doses</li> </ul>	or 2 doses, 4 weeks apart
Meningococcal infection ACYW-135 (Menactra®)	<ul> <li>People with specific medical conditions, travellers to certain destinations and those living in communal residences, including students and military personnel</li> </ul>	<ul><li>1 dose</li><li>Revaccination every 5 years if at continued risk</li></ul>
Meningococcal B (Trumenba®)	<ul><li>Adults who are medically high-risk</li><li>Adults with occupational risk</li><li>Travellers to certain high risk destinations</li></ul>	<ul> <li>An initial dose plus a follow-up dose 6 months later; people at high risk: initial dose plus 2 follow-up doses 1 month and 4-6 months later</li> </ul>
Pertussis (whooping cough) provided as Tdap	During each pregnancy	Once if no prior pertussis vaccination in adulthood
Pneumococcal infection Prevnar®20 Pneumovax®23	<ul> <li>Adults 18 yrs and over at risk of pneumonia due to underlying condition</li> <li>Immunocompromised adults</li> <li>Adults 65 years of age and over</li> <li>Adults living in residential care or assisted living facilities</li> <li>Adults with medical or lifestyle risks</li> </ul>	Prevnar®20: 1 dose Pneumovax®23: 1 dose plus a booster shot in 5 years for those who are immunocompromised
Tetanus (lockjaw) provided as Td or Tdap	• Everyone	Booster every 10 years
Varicella (chickenpox)	People who have not had the disease or been vaccinated	2 doses, at 4-8 weeks apart depending on vaccine brand
Additional travel vaccines	<ul> <li>Vary by destination; consult a travel health clinic or pharmacy with travel health designation, your doctor, or local public health unit</li> </ul>	Vary depending on vaccine
Respiratory syncytial virus or RSV (Arexvy™)	• 60 years of age and older	• 1 dose