Winnipegger Marcella Chartrand nets $100,000 as the latest winner in Save-On-Foods' Million Dollar Score and Win promotion

Winnipeg Jet Andrew Copp scored four goals against the Vancouver Canucks on March 24, earning Cartrand $100,000

(March 26, 2021 – Langley, B.C.) – Save-On-Foods announced today that Marcella Chartrand of Winnipeg is the latest $100,000 winner in the Save-On-Foods Million Dollar Score and Win promotion. When Winnipeg Jet Andrew Copp netted four goals on Wednesday night against the Vancouver Canucks, Chartrand won $100,000 as part of the promotion.

“We couldn’t be happier to award Save-On-Foods customer Marcella Chartrand the first $100,000 prize of the season in the Save-On-Foods Million Dollar Score and Win promotion,” said Save-On-Foods president Darrell Jones. “We can’t wait to give away more great prizes to Save-On-Foods shoppers – we’re rooting for the Canucks, Oilers, Flames and Jets to score big, so our customers can too!”

In the Save-On-Foods Million Dollar Score and Win promotion, customers throughout Western Canada are automatically entered each time they shop and scan their More Rewards card. They receive bonus entries for purchasing participating products and using their More Rewards card at partner locations.

Save-On-Foods awards a great prize for every goal scored by the Canucks, Flames, Oilers and Jets. If a Canucks, Flames, Oilers or Jets player scores four goals in a single game, one customer wins $100,000, with a fifth goal resulting in the $1,000,000 prize.
